Employment History

1997 – 2000 – I left college and started work on the streets of Croydon, on the door of the Cha Cha Bar every weekend evening.

2000 – 2002 – I used my cooking A Level and Security experience combining roles of Head Chef and Head of Security at the busy Duck's Back Public House in Kingston -Upon -Thames

2003 – 2004 – After travelling around Australia in a Bedford Rascal for six months and occasionally once arriving in Sydney working the doors of Sydney's Bonza Discotheque.

2004 – Present – I came back to England and joined A1 Security Services. Here, my job responsibilities include ensuring that every event we are at our security is as tight as it can possibly be. Security in both the companies and my handbook, is paramount.

Education

5 GCSE's in PE, Art, English Language,
Human Biology & Drama.

1 A Level in Cooking.

1 Lifetime in Security.

Career Highlights:

None. I have never dyed my hair for work! Besides I'm ginger!

References

I on occasions use naughty words to describe fat people and loiterers. It would be impolite to mention what they are.

Interests

Not many women!
